

Seven Last Words & Eight Words of Easter
Meditations for Your Journey to Pentecost
ISBN: 13: 978-1481823661
Awakening Vocations, 2013

The church pays fervent attention to the forty days of Lent. But what about those eight weeks of Easter?

In Seven Last Words & Eight Words of Easter, Catholic author and vocational consultant Mary Sharon Moore powerfully links the last words of Jesus in his agony and crucifixion to his words to the apostles following his resurrection.

Moore approaches the well beloved “seven last words” of Jesus with fresh and compelling intimacy. The “eight words of Easter,” while familiar to many from the Gospels, offer fresh territory for insight in this meditative context.

Seven Last Words & Eight Words of Easter is rich fare and a source of interior renewal in this most important season of the church’s liturgical year. Those new or returning to the faith, regulars or visitors to the adoration chapel, teachers and catechists of the faith, homebound parishioners, those who minister to prisoners, all these and more will find great consolation and encouragement in these fifteen highly polished meditations and the reflection questions that follow.

Mary Sharon Moore is a Catholic author, speaker, and spiritual and vocational director. She is founding director of Awakening Vocations, a consulting practice that delivers honest talk on the nature of God’s calling. She is author of Anointed for a Purpose, Moving in God’s Direction, Touching the Reign of God, and numerous articles. Her spiritual and vocational direction practice spans the United States, Canada, and beyond. More at www.awakeningvocations.com.